This superb family home probably defines the term 'key ready'. Compared so many properties in the area, this detached villa has been so well redesigned and renovated that you can really just turn up with your suitcases and move straight in. The current owners carried out the extensive works on the house in the last few years, and have produced a stunning house with style and quality everywhere you look. The plot includes a super pool and outdoor kitchen and dining area, great for entertaining. The interior is very well distributed: the top floor has 3 large ensuite, including the primary bedroom with walk in wardrobes. All three bedrooms have panoramic sea and mountain views to the South West. The ground floor at street level has a huge living space with open plan kitchen, and glass doors divide a second reception room. This level also includes one ensuite guest bedroom. The lower floor is a spectacular space with full spa facilities and a large cinema room, wine cellar, and 2 additional ensuite bedrooms and a large garage. There are so many luxury features in this property, it really needs to be seen to be appreciated.
